Over service of alcohol can be a problem for both communities and liquor establishments. Over serving can lead to property destruction, bodily injury, civil liability and even loss of life.

Responsible service can make your establishment safer and ensure the return of customers to your business.

The Carol Stream Police Department now offers the B.A.S.S.E.T. program to train and educate liquor licensees and their employees to serve alcohol in a responsible fashion.

Beverage
Alcohol
Sellers and
Servers
Education and Training

The Illinois Liquor Control Commission (ILCC) encourages participation in B.A.S.S.E.T. training to:

- ◆ Create a safer environment where alcohol is served
- ◆ Prevent DUI's, alcohol related traffic injuries and fatalities
- ◆ Protect business owners from unnecessary court litigations

TOPICS COVERED IN B.A.S.S.E.T. TRAINING

- ◆ How alcohol affects the body
- ◆ Blood alcohol concentration or BAC
- ◆ Prevention and intervention techniques
- ◆ Information about Illinois state laws and statutes pertaining to alcohol service
