§ 10-4-1 DEFINITIONS.

For the purpose of this article, the following definitions shall apply unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning.

PERSON. Any individual, firm, co-partnership, corporation, company, association or joint stock association, church, religious sect, religious denomination, society, organization or league, and including any trustee, receiver, assignee, agent or other similar representative thereof.

SOLICITING or SOLICITATION.

(1) Any one or more of the following activities by a person on streets, highways, sidewalks and at residences without invitation:

(a) The sale of, offer or attempt to sell, or seeking to obtain orders for the purchase of goods, wares, merchandise, foodstuff, consulting services or services of any kind, character or description, for any kind of consideration whatever;

(b) The sale of, offer or attempt to sell, or seeking to obtain prospective customers for any application or purchase of insurance of any type, kind or character;

(c) The sale of, offer or attempt to sell, or seeking to obtain subscriptions to books, magazines, periodicals, newspapers or any type kind of publication; and

(d) The request, directly or indirectly, for money, credit, property, financial assistance or other thing of value on the plea or representation that such money, credit, property, financial assistance or other thing of value will be used for a political, religious or charitable purpose.

(2) SOLICITATION shall be deemed completed when made, whether or not the person making the same receives any contribution or makes any sale referred to in this section.

(Ord. 92-11-117, passed 11-10-1992; Ord. 2002-06-34, passed 6-17-2002; Ord. 2003-02-07, passed 2-18-2003)

§ 10-4-2 SOLICITATION PERMIT REQUIRED.

(A) It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in solicitation without securing a required permit or to solicit in a manner inconsistent with the issuance of the permit.

(B) Every person desiring to engage in solicitation, as defined in this article, from persons in residences, on streets, highways or sidewalks located in the village, except for a merchant conducting a sale on the sidewalk as permitted under the village's Zoning Code, is hereby required to make written application for a solicitation permit as hereinafter provided, and obtain such permit prior to engaging in solicitation within the village.

(C) Application for solicitation permits shall be made upon a form provided by, and shall be submitted to, the Village Manager, and shall be accompanied by such other documentation as is required herein.

(D) All statements made by the applicant upon the application or in connection therewith shall be under oath.

(E) The Village Manager and the Chief of Police shall cause to be kept in their offices an accurate record of every application received and acted upon, together with all other information and data pertaining thereto, and copies of all solicitation permits issued under the provisions of this article. Applications for permits shall be numbered in consecutive order, as filed, and every permit issued and any renewal thereof shall be identified with the duplicate number of the application upon which it was issued.

(F) No solicitation permit shall be issued to any person who has been convicted of soliciting without a permit within the village or in any other jurisdiction or of a violation of any of the provisions of this article, nor to any person whose solicitation permit issued hereunder has previously been revoked, as herein provided, for a period of two years from the date of such conviction or revocation.

(Ord. 92-11-117, passed 11-10-1992; Ord. 97-12-85, passed 12-15-1997; Ord. 2003-02-07, passed 2-18-2003)

§ 10-4-3 PERMIT ISSUANCE; DENIAL.

(A) Permit issuance. If the applicant has complied with all the provisions of this article, the solicitation permit shall be issued forthwith.

(B) Permit denial.

(1) The Village Manager, within ten business days of filing of the application, after consideration, investigation and review of the application and all information obtained relative thereto, shall deny the application if the applicant is not entitled to a permit, pursuant to the provisions of this article, or if the application does not contain all of the information and documentation as required herein.

(2) Endorsement shall be made by the Village Manager on the application of the reason for the denial of the application.

(3) If the application is denied, the license fee shall be deemed to have covered the cost of investigation and shall not be returned.

(Ord. 92-11-117, passed 11-10-1992; Ord. 2003-02-07, passed 2-18-2003)
